Alpha Munro has taught the Fèis Rois Kibearn Fiddlers for many years with great success, as well as teaching at other Fèisean. She has compiled this new tutor book with beginners in mind.

It contains around 30 tunes, all with Gaelic and English titles and background notes. In addition, there are sections of the book dealing with the different parts of a fiddle, how to look after the instrument and how to hold it, all of which is explained to the user in Gaelic and in English.

It is a valuable resource which will be of use for tuition at Fèisean, but also for fiddle tuition in other situations, and is also very valuable in terms of introducing new Gaelic musical vocabulary to people of all ages.

The book runs to 68 pages and has a full colour front cover, is illustrated throughout by Geordie MacDonald Haig, with Gaelic text by Keith Scammell.
